Independence day

Report:

In a commendable initiative, the NSS unit of Ramanujan College organized an online session on 13th August 2023, titled "Veeron ka Vandan: Honouring the Heroes," to pay tribute to India's freedom fighters. The event featured Maj Gen(Dr) Yash Mor, CEO of Save the Himalayas, PhD holder, author, TEDx speaker, top Unacademy educator, YouTuber, and life coach, as the guest of honor. This session aimed to inspire participants to reflect on the significance of the freedom fighters' contributions and honor their sacrifices.

The event, conducted on the Zoom platform and live-streamed on YouTube, attracted over 110 participants. The webinar highlighted the unity that the freedom struggle fostered among people from diverse backgrounds, religions, and regions. It underscored how this unity was pivotal in achieving the common goal of independence, reminiscent of the freedom movement's solidarity.

Participants engaged in thoughtful discussions about the core values upheld by freedom fighters, particularly non-violence, truth, and equality. These discussions explored the continued relevance of these values in today's world, emphasizing how they can guide us toward a just and inclusive society. The interactive Q&A session allowed participants to seek clarifications and engage in deeper conversations with the speakers, enhancing their understanding of the topics discussed.

As we celebrated Independence Day, the "Veeron ka Vandan: Honouring the Heroes" webinar served as a poignant tribute to India's freedom fighters. It celebrated their unwavering determination, sacrifices, and the indelible mark they left on the nation's history. Major Yash mor's words of wisdom resonated with the participants, inspiring them to continue the legacy of these heroes by working towards a just, inclusive, and free society.

रमानुजन कॉलेज एनएसएस यूनिट ने स्वच्छ भारत अभियान के समर्थन में एक प्रमुख सफाई अभियान का नेतृत्व किया

"सफाई की दिशा में सामूहिक प्रयास हमारे आस-पास को ही नहीं, हमारे दिलों को भी बदल देते हैं, समुदायों को एक साझा दृष्टिकोण में साफ और उज्ज्वल भविष्य की दिशा में जोड़ते हैं।"

सफाई और समाज के सुधार के प्रति प्रतिबद्धता का अद्वितीय प्रदर्शन के रूप में, रमानुजन कॉलेज की एनएसएस यूनिट ने 2023 में 1 अक्टूबर को, सम्मानित प्रधानमंत्री श्री नरेंद्र मोदी जी द्वारा "एक तारीख, एक घंटा" अभियान के तहत, उच्च स्वच्छ भारत अभियान के समर्थन में एक प्रभावी सफाई अभियान का आयोजन किया।

इस पहल का प्रमुख उद्देश्य था लोगों को जागरूक करना, चाहे वो किसी भी पर्यावरण से जुड़े हों, सफाई के महत्वपूर्ण भूमिका के बारे में, जो एक अधिक स्वस्थ और समृद्ध समाज की निर्माण में बजाये। इस कार्यक्रम की शुरुआत 10 बजे के बजाय हुई जब कॉलेज परिसर में उत्साही स्वयंसेवकों की एक बड़ी जमावड़ा थी।

एनएसएस स्वयंसेवक, ऊर्जा और उत्साह से भरपूर, एक मिशन पर निकले जिसमें सुधार कैम्प, कलकाजी की ओर बढ़े, एक ऐसे क्षेत्र में जहाँ एक स्वच्छ समाज के महत्व को अक्सर नजरअंदाज किया जाता है। झाड़ू और पोंछा लेकर, स्वयंसेवक उत्साह से सफाई अभियान की शुरुआत की। उनका समर्पण और उच्च आत्मा सफाई के योग्यता को प्रमाणित करते थे, जब वे प्रेरणादायक नारे देते हुए कचरे को संग्रहित करके और उसे निर्धारित डस्टबिन में सही तरीके से निपटाते।

कार्यक्रम की नेतृत्व करते हुए डॉ. अलोक रंजन पांडेय, एनएसएस संवाददाता, और मुकेश मंडोला थे, जिन्होंने छात्रों को प्रोत्साहित करने के लिए पहल की और मुकेश मंडोला ने छात्रों के उत्साह को जगाने की पहल की।

इस सामुदायिक सफाई प्रयास में अद्वितीय कार्रवाई की ताकत का प्रतीक रूप में 50 छात्रों ने सक्रिय रूप से भाग लिया। कार्यक्रम दोपहर 12 बजे सफलतापूर्वक संपन्न हुआ, जो एक स्वच्छ और अधिक जागरूक समाज की दिशा में एक महत्वपूर्ण कदम है।

Blood donation camp

Report:

On the 10th of October 2023, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit of Ramanujan College, in collaboration with Chandra Laxmi Hospital, organized a highly successful Blood Donation Drive near the college's main building area. The primary goal of the event was to raise awareness about the critical importance of blood donations and to contribute to the noble cause of saving lives through voluntary blood donation, highlighting the significant impact it has on people's lives and those suffering from severe medical conditions.

The event commenced at 10:00 AM and continued until 4:00 PM, with active participation from NSS members who organized and coordinated the campaign. The following key activities were executed during the drive:

1. Registration and Screening: A team of trained medical professionals screened potential donors to ensure their eligibility and safety.
2. Blood Donation: Eligible donors proceeded to the donation area, where they generously donated blood under strict medical supervision.
3. Refreshments: After their donations, donors received refreshments and snacks to aid in their recovery.

The NSS Unit is pleased to announce that the campaign achieved remarkable success, with a total of 85 students participating by donating blood. This response exemplifies the commitment and generosity of our college community.

The Blood Donation Drive surpassed its collection target and effectively raised awareness about the critical need for voluntary blood donations.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to NSS Convenor, Dr. Alok Ranjan Pandey, who supervised the event, as well as to all the donors, volunteers, medical professionals, and college staff whose dedication and support were instrumental in the campaign's success. Looking ahead, we are enthusiastic about continuing such impactful initiatives to make a positive difference in our community.

Meri Mati Mera Desh rally

Report:

The National Service Scheme (NSS) unit of Ramanujan College, University of Delhi, proudly organized an inspiring and engaging rally on the 10th of October 2023 as part of the "Meri Mati Mera Desh" campaign. This event was not just a demonstration of unity and enthusiasm; it also served as a powerful medium to promote awareness and advocacy for the campaign's noble cause.

The centerpiece of this rally was a beautifully decorated matka, symbolizing the Earth, our 'Mati.' Within it, lay a profound message – it is our collective responsibility to nurture and protect our land, the very essence of "Meri Mati Mera Desh."

The rally was graced by esteemed individuals, including our respected Principal, Dr. S.P Aggarwal, and NSS convenor, Dr. Alok Ranjan Pandey. Their active participation and leadership set an example for all volunteers, inspiring them to carry forward the mission of the campaign. With an air of anticipation and excitement, all NSS volunteers congregated in the college campus, ready to commence this memorable rally. Participants held the matka and the NSS banner high, gathered around with a spirit of unity.

The rally began with the principal and the NSS convenor symbolically pouring 'mitti' (soil) into the matka, emphasizing the importance of returning to our roots and reconnecting with the land that sustains us. The primary objective of the rally was to create awareness about the "Meri Mati Mera Desh" campaign. The volunteers engaged in meaningful conversations with fellow students, paying tribute to the courageous freedom fighters and heroes who selflessly gave their lives for the nation's cause. It aimed to remind everyone that the soil we stand upon is not just a piece of land but a part of our identity, history, and culture. This motive resonated deeply with the participants and added a profound layer of significance to the rally.

The rally concluded with the matka being handed over to the Kalkaji Councillor, Yogita Singh, by Dr. S.P Aggarwal, the principal. All the volunteers actively participated, and the rally was a success due to the combined efforts of NSS volunteers.
