

Clean Campaign, Green Campaign Rally

Organised by National Service Scheme, University of Delhi in collaboration with Proctor's Office, University of Delhi

In the run-up to the upcoming Delhi University Students' Union (DUSU) elections, National Service Scheme (NSS), University of Delhi in collaboration with Proctor's Office organised a rally on the theme "Clean Campaign, Green Campaign" on 25th August, 2025.

The initiative aimed at sensitising students towards ethical, eco-friendly, and peaceful campaigning practices during student elections.

The rally was graced by the august presence of Prof. Manoj Kumar Singh, Proctor, University of Delhi; Dr. Saurabh, Deputy Proctor; Dr. Narender Kumar Bishnoi, Programme Coordinator, NSS; Dr. Sukanya Singha, Programme Officer, NSS Law Centre-1; along with other esteemed committee members.

Students enthusiastically participated in the rally, holding placards with slogans and messages supporting clean and green elections. The rally commenced from Vishwavidyalaya Metro Station, passed through Ramjas College and Daulat Ram College, and concluded at the Arts Faculty, spreading awareness among the university community about the importance of ethical, eco-friendly, and clean campaigning practices.

The initiative reflected the University's commitment to nurturing responsible citizenship, environmental sustainability, and integrity in the democratic process.
